Survey

Do you suffer from vaginal dryness? A local physician's practice is contemplating adding a new procedure to their patient care services called MonaLisa Touch and has asked for our help in assessing the amount of interest among female patients. MonaLisa Touch is a series of 3 laser treatments performed in the office and is intended for any woman who suffers from vaginal dryness and painful intercourse. To learn more details about MonaLisa Touch, visit: www.andrewspatel.com. Please return completed survey to the front desk staff. You may submit the survey anonymously or include your contact information if you would like to attend an informational meeting. Thank you for your help.
